ATTACHMENT A

1. The SUBJECT PREMISES to be searched is located at: 3185 Sleepy Hollow Drive, Sullivan, Missouri in the County of Franklin, within the Eastern District of Missouri. The residence is a single family ranch style home. The residence has a screened in front porch built across most of the front. The entrance is on the left end of the enclosure. There is a red metal carport on the left side of the front of the residence. The residence has tan yellow siding with dark green shutters. There is a large shed on the left as you enter the board fence entrance of the property. A barn is further out, on the right of the residence.
2. The premises to be searched includes any appurtenances to the real property that is the SUBJECT PREMISES, and any storage units or outbuildings.

ATTACHMENT B

DESCRIPTION OF ITEMS TO BE SEARCHED FOR AND SEIZED

1. All visual depictions, including still images, videos, films, or other recordings of child pornography or minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256, and any mechanism used for the receipt or storage of the same, but not limited to:

Any computer, computer system, cellular devices, Personal Data Assistants (PDAs), and any related peripherals, including any data processing devices and software (including but not limited to central processing units; internal and peripheral storage devices such as fixed disks, external hard drives, floppy disk drives and diskettes, routers, computer compact disks, CD-ROMs, DVD, and other memory storage devices) as well as any devices, mechanisms, or parts that can be used to restrict access to computer hardware (including but not limited to physical keys and locks).

2. Computer monitors, keyboards, and computer mice.

3. Any and all computer passwords and other data security devices designed to restrict access to or hide computer software, documentation, or data. Data security devices may consist of hardware, software, or other programming code.

4. Any and all computer data that would reveal the presence of malware, viruses, or malicious codes located on the computer storage media, or computer data that would indicate the lack of malware, viruses, or malicious codes.

5. Any and all documents, records, emails, logs, and Internet history (in documentary or electronic form) pertaining to the production, possession, receipt, or distribution of child pornography or visual depictions of minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256, pertaining to an interest in child pornography whether transmitted or received; pertaining to the persuading, inducing, enticing, or coercing of minors to engage in prostitution or any sexual activity; or pertaining to the transfer of obscene matter to minors.

6. Any and all materials or items which are sexually arousing to individuals who are interested in minors, but which are not in and of themselves obscene or which do not necessarily depict minors involved in sexually explicit conduct. Such material is commonly known as "child erotica" and includes written materials dealing with child development, sex education, child pornography, sexual abuse of children, incest, child prostitution, missing children, investigative techniques of child exploitation, sexual disorders, pedophilia, nudist publications, diaries, and fantasy writings. "Child erotica" may also include, in this context, sex aids and/or toys.

7. Any and all records, documents, invoices, and materials, in any format or medium (including, but not limited to, e-mail messages, chat logs, and electronic messages, and other digital data files) that concern online storage or other remote computer storage, including, but not limited to, software used to access such online storage or remote computer storage, user logs or archived data that show connection to such online storage or remote computer storage, and user logins and passwords for such online storage or remote computer storage.

8. Records, documents, invoices, and materials that demonstrate use or control of an Internet Service Provider account, including paid bills as well as all records relating to the ownership or use of computer equipment and cellular phone found in the residence.

9. Documents and records regarding the ownership, possession, and/or control of the searched premises. These records shall be limited to utility bills, telephone bills, and rental agreements.

10. Any documents, records, programs or applications relating to the existence of counter-forensic programs (and associated data) that are designed to eliminate data from the computers.
